The News Letter of COTR Theological Seminary

Vol. 3 / Issue 1

Feb - July 2017

EDITORIAL

Greetings!

Dear friends in Christ Jesus, we pray that you will have a blessed experience in seeing God's amazing accomplishments in our COTRTS community. The new academic year for 2017-18 began with the Spiritual Emphasis week. The theme for this academic year is 'Refresh - Revive - Restore'. As the theme signifies, COTRTS stands to refresh the servant leaders with the knowledge and wisdom of God, to revive, one's spiritual walk with Christ, and to restore the process in the harvest field to the glory of God. Currently, around hundred students are in M. Th in Mission and Church History, Master of Divinity, Bachelor of Theology and Diploma in Theology. We are offering Ph.D in Missiology (waiting for ATA accreditation), our Department of Extension Studies (DOES) is offering M.Div. and B.Th. in distance mode. Our next module starts in October 2017.

The campus has been renovated / painted and adorned over the summer with new greenery for an eco-friendly campus. This year, Mr. Rajababu and Mr. Purna Chandrarao have joined us on the faculty team.

Continuously pray and support COTRTS ministries as we look forward to a blessed time ahead.

God Bless

On behalf of COTRTS Team

COTRTS GRADUATES 2016-2017

The academic year 2016-17 has completed with the graduation of 24 students from different parts of India enrolled for different courses. Four students from M. Th., Four from M.Div., Eight from B.Th., Two from Dip. Th and Ten students for Certificate in Theology respectively have graduated on 25th Feb., 2017. The theme of the service was 'Equip - Encourage - Engage'. Rev. Dr. Sam Walker and Rev. Dr. Gladwyn Turner delivered messages based on the theme 'Equip - Encourage - Engage'. Mrs. Mary Titus greeted the congregation and Rev. Johnson P. Titus also addressed the graduates. The service was blessed with friends, well-wishers and prayer partners. The Board of Directors, Faculty and COTRTS community thank everyone who attended and prayed for the same.
